The Lushof Wine Estate is a small family-run farm situated high on the slopes of the Helderberg overlooking False Bay with spectacular views towards Table Mountain.It is here where their wines are made, near perfect conditions prevailing for the growing of quality grapes. They grow their own grapes and the wine is also made, matured and bottled on the farm to ensure optimal control of quality. Their wines are limited in quantity. Fourteen hectares of immaculately cultivated Helderberg vineyards and a state of the art boutique cellar are testimony to the Lushof philosophy of achieving quality through attention to detail.Family owned and run, the Lushof estate produced its first wines for the Millennium in 2000, and has since enjoyed both local and international acclaim. They produce fine fruit, have the facilities, the resources and patience to respect and preserve quality through to the finished product.Visit them on the Helderberg and enjoy some of the Stellenbosch Wine Routes finest wine with them at their new cellar and tasting facility.
