Fuchs Southern Africa

Gerber Boulevard, Gants Centre
Strand
Strand

Phone: +27(21) 8544808

Fuchs Southern Africa is a subsidiary of Fuchs Petrolub SE, the largest independent manufacturer of specialist lubricants in the world. Fuchs Southern Africa offers the best of high quality German products, manufactured with only the highest quality mineral and synthetic base oils, and additive packages.The company’s entire focus is in establishing ourselves as the foremost supplier of ultra-high quality and specialised lubricants to the automotive, mining and industrial sectors, backed up by highly trained lubrication specialists.is our new global motto and as technology advances, Fuchs remains in the forefront of developing lubricants in co-operation with the world’s most innovative automotive and industrial OEM’s that provide the enhanced levels of performance that they require.This dedication to excellence is highlighted by the number of products within our extensive range of products that carry approvals from the world’s best known manufacturers.We are continually upgrading and expanding our state of the art laboratory, and our blending and filling plants at our facility in Isando, Gauteng. Our ISO 9001: 2008 certification gives you the assurance that the quality of our products are always up to the required standards. In addition, Fuchs’ already expansive range of products is continually being expanded to cater for new lubrication requirements.

Mobile: 0

Send Message