Wavecrest is very well-located for both holiday and business. Only 20 minutes' drive away from the Cape Town International Airport and 30 minutes from Cape Town with all its exciting attractions, including the world-famous Table Mountain, vibrant Waterfront, boat trips to Robben Island and scenic drives to Cape Point Nature Reserve, it offers the perfect base for touring the Western Cape and Peninsula. Being situated in the natural beauty of Helderberg basin together with the towns of Somerset-West and Gordon's Bay, it not only boasts glorious beaches, restaurants to satisfy the most fastidious palate, shopping malls, craft markets and tea gardens on its doorstep, but lies on the brink of the Cape Winelands and minutes away from the world-renowned Stellenbosch Wine Route. The charming historic towns of Stellenbosch and Franschhoek are a mere 20 and 55 km away respectively, and Hermanus - the 'whale capital' of SA - 70 km. For the outdoor enthusiast there is an almost endless list of possible activities within less than five or ten kilometres. Nature lovers will find themselves in the heart of the Cape floral kingdom with its wealth of fynbos species (9600 species; the Cape Peninsula itself contains 2285 plant species - more than the British Isles' 1492 species) - a hiker's and bird watcher's paradise.
