Lanzerac Wine Estate, home to the world's first bottled Pinotage and one of the oldest heritage farms in the Western Cape dating back to 1692, has been cultivating award-winning wines for decades. Nestled in the Jonkershoek Valley between the majestic Stellenbosch mountains, this historic Estate's rich winemaking history can be traced back to the early 1900s, when the first Lanzerac wine was bottled from grapes harvested on the farm. Since then, Lanzerac Wine Estate has cemented itself as a distinguished wine producer with a commitment to superior quality wines both internationally and locally. Today the Estate boasts a luxury 5 Star Hotel, well-appointed Tasting Room, world-class Spa, various dining offerings and bars as well as corporate functions and events facilities.
