Akkerdal Estate is situated in the picturesque Franschhoek valley. It is nestled between majestic mountains, breathtaking views with oak trees and the constant flowing Berg river – a perfect territory and ambience for an artist to live his dream. Owner and wine maker Pieter Hanekom, says wine making is part of the Hanekom family heritage and culture, and an essential part of the good life. At Akkerdal the focus is on iconic red wines, here unique world red wine blends are being mass produced. At this artisan winery, we believe that the finest wines emanate from quality grapes. With ingredients like enthusiasm, dedication, quality and immense passion it is inevitable for Akkerdal wines to be in a class of its own. Accept this as an invitation to share and enjoy the perfected bottled art and poetry of Akkerdal Estate.
