Rhebokskloof Wine Estate, part of the Paarl wine route, nestles between two valleys at the foot of the majestic Paarl Mountain, just 45 minutes from the city of Cape Town. The natural beauty of the area is further complemented by the perfect positioning of our heritage buildings. With its rolling lawns, tranquil lakes, willow trees and hectare upon hectare of vineyards, Rhebokskloof is described as a â€œplush paradiseâ€ and is one of the winelandsâ€™ most beautiful farms.

Delicious meals are served at The Rhebok Restaurant and superb function venues. Rhebokskloof Wine Estate is open every day of the year and offers plenty to do for the whole family, from quad-biking, horse-riding and picnics to food-pairings and great live shows. Paarl, the third oldest town in South Africa, is just five minutes away from Rhebokskloof and is a historianâ€™s delight.Rhebokskloof Wine Estate is renowned for its top quality, award-winning wines. And thatâ€™s not surprising when you consider that vines and viticulture have been the backbone of the farm for a long, long time...
