Coetzenburg Real Estate was founded in September 1981 and is the 2nd oldest real estate agency in the University town of Stellenbosch and the Cape Winelands. Stellenbosch is situated in the Western Cape province of South Africa and was founded in 1679 by Simon van der Stel. Known as the “City of Oaks” due to all the oak trees planted by Van der Stel, it is also the second oldest European settlement, after Cape Town, in South Africa. Stellenbosch has a small town atmosphere and mild Mediterranean weather. The Architecture includes Cape Dutch, Georgian and Modern Victorian. Coetzenburg Real Estate is an independent real estate agency and offers a selection of residential and commercial properties for sale and to rent. Our portfolio includes houses, townhouses, apartments, estate properties, commercial properties and farms. We also offer a wide variety of properties to rent, including student accommodation. Our office is situated amongst art galleries, restaurants and coffee shops in historic Church Street. Take your time to browse through our online listings, but if you cannot find that ideal property you are looking for on our website, give us a call and we will help you find the property of your dreams.
