The Devon Valley Hotel is tucked away in a tranquil corner of the Winelands, boasting some of the most breath-taking views of hotels in Stellenbosch. Most of the fifty stylishly furnished rooms offer simply spectacular views across vineyards and olive groves towards the Helderberg in the distance. This charming Stellenbosch hotel is well-known for its authentic 'handmade hospitality', with a proud history dating back to 1947 when the main building was constructed from Canadian Cedarwood. The truly unique original design as well as the hotel's current contemporary colonial feel remains part of its appeal with guests and visitors alike. Of Stellenbosch accommodation it's arguably one of the most ideal settings for special celebrations, romantic getaways, family holidays, or productive winelands conferences. Although guests are spoiled for choice in Stellenbosch restaurants, most prefer to dine in-house. Guests enjoy the superb à la carte menu options, alfresco dining on the Vineyard Terrace and especially for Sunday Lunch, Flavours is one of the most popular buffet restaurants in Stellenbosch. The Devon Valley is a hotel in Stellenbosch offering a truly unforgettable and rejuvenating retreat. OUR ACCOMMODATION OFFERINGS CLASSIC ROOMS The valley-facing rooms each have their own private decks and the north-facing rooms open into private courtyards with wonderful views of the vineyards or olive groves.

CLASSIC DOUBLE ROOMS

Devon Valley is home to arguably one of the most unique hotels in Stellenbosch with its historic main building constructed entirely from Canadian Cedarwood. Built in 1947, the main building is home to the hotel's tastefully decorated Classic Double rooms offering an unforgettable winelands retreat and the opportunity to indulge in a tranquil hotel in valley experience. Colonial charm and modern elegance are cleverly combined in the décor elements. In each hotel room the authenticity of the main building's wooden structure is maintained and also celebrated through the rich textures and warm colour of the fabrics, contrasting with crisp white bed linen. The bathrooms are extremely spacious with large walk-in showers and free-standing Queen Anne baths. The Classic Double rooms are either North or South facing, most leading out to private courtyards or wooden decks where guests can enjoy breath-taking Valley or Vineyard views.
