Heunis Law

1 Haarhof St, Bene
Somerset West

Phone: +27(21) 8511555

About UsHeunis Law is a multi-disciplinary legal firm based in Somerset West, and is the proud successor of the Heunis & Heunis Attorneys legacy first founded by the late Chris Heunis and his brother, Jim, in George in 1951 and continued in 1989 with the opening of a law firm in Somerset West by Chris and his son, Jakkie Heunis.Proficient in fields of commercial law, family law, labour law, civil litigation and property law the firm has the aptitude to offer the solution to diverse legal matters.The firm continues to provide exceptional service to clients, be they private individuals, large (local and international) corporates and institutions from the public sector. We have successfully steered countless clients through the legal complexities that our modern and ever changing world present.For decades we have been and continue to be involved in a multitude of exciting and successful commercial, industrial and residential property developments. Our specialised and experienced property law department is able to provide solutions for the most complex matters.Our property transfer department delivers excellent and hands on service to effect property transfers, not only with speed and efficiency, but with an understanding of the feelings of all the people involved. Our attorneys and conveyancers are involved every step of the way.With our offices based in Somerset

West, we are conveniently located to attend to legal matters, not only in the Helderberg basin, Cape Town, Stellenbosch and the surrounding areas, but in the Western Cape and further afield. Our close proximity to Cape Town International Airport makes it even easier to see us. In short, we serve clients from all over the world, wherever the need arises.

Send Message
Email Friend