Dhansay and Roberts Biokineticists was established in May of 2014.

Our motto: “The whole is greater than the sum of its parts” has defined our success. With a combined experience of over a decade and our diverse, complementary skill-set, we are able to provide an effective Biokinetics service to our patients.

Our working ethos, P.R.I.D.E, meaning Personal Responsibility In Delivering Excellence has afforded us a steady growth and strong working protocols.

We are confident that our current rehabilitation processes and its ever-evolving nature ensures that we offer only the most effective science-based treatment and rehabilitation services.
