Plettenberg Bay WinelandsWHY WINETOTS?How We Got StartedSo, you have kids and life as you know it is over… Life is better than it has ever been, because they are just the best, BUT where to go and what to do that is amazing both for them and for YOU?Our mission as a family is to discover the best of the Cape Winelands (and beyond), where you can relax and treat all your senses while your kids have fun in beautiful and safe surroundings …Join us on our adventures with our little adventurers, and we will share some of our best experiences. With having visited a triple-figure number of wineries as a family so far (follow us to find out when, which and exactly how many). We will share the best of both past and present discoveries and will highlight those spots that continue to be consistently superb. Blending past and present, we take you back in time on a journey from the first wine farm that we visited as a nuclear family, when our son was 10 days old, to now – over a decade later – and eventually share with you our explosive current count of different wineries visited.Get in TouchWe at WineTots, have been so privileged to tour across South Africa and experience so much of what this beautiful country has to offer and we look forward to sharing it with you!Contact us for bespoke bookings and personalised tours, from the Winelands of the Western Cape to the Eastern Cape game reserves.Please follow our journey by checking out our socials or subscribing to our mailing list to receive special news & content!If you have any suggestions for upcoming content, we'd also love to hear from you.
