THE GUEST HOUSEA deluxe guesthouse in the quaint, tranquil village of Arniston only 450 m from the beach and historical fishing harbour. Arniston is a national monument and the only remaining historic fishing village in South Africa.YOUR HOSTSAde and Jill Penny look forward to welcoming you to our home.ABOUT ARNISTON/WAENHUISKRANSArniston is a tranquil fishing village approx 210 km’s from Cape Town, on the Indian Ocean coast of South Africa. The village of Kassiesbaai boasts iconic white washed, thatched roof fishermans’ cottages. The Arniston sank here in 1815, only 6 of the 378 passengers survived the disaster.There are pristine white sandy beaches, dotted with rock pools to explore. Prehistoric fish traps made by the Khoisan strandlopers (beach walkers) still remain along the coastline. These stone built enclosures trap fish at high tide.Waenhuiskrans means wagon house cave, big enough to house a wagon and oxen.De Hoop and Die Mond reserves flank Arniston.BLUE SKY HAS EN-SUITE BEDROOMS WITH:Extra length Queen bedsCustom made furnitureNespresso coffee machinesKettlesMini bar fridgeInternational multi plugs with usbACWi-fiOne honeymoon suite with private gardenOne wheelchair friendly roomFull restaurantLounge with satellite TVPool
