Enjoy the peace and quiet. The open spaces and connection with nature. And then, tell your friends. We hope to inspire you to wander out to quiet beaches, stay a while and connect with the true spirit of South Africa. A stay at Chorister Cottage, is about dis-connecting to the bustle of the city and reuniting with the bush. It's aimed at inspiring people to explore, indulge, enjoy. Our offering will satisfy that urge to escape the city. Let the hum of traffic be drowned out by the rustling of leaves or the squawking of a birds flying overhead. In this bustling modern day and age, detach from reality for a little bit and find yourselves in a peaceful respite from the outside world.
