Sedgefield Glamping: A Tranquil Escape on the edge of the Sedgefield. A tranquil & romantic off-grid weekend getaway for two..... Stay in an old-fashioned cob house.....It's next-level camping, and it's all in your backyard. This one's for the adventure glamper. During the day explore the nearby bush, river and birdwatch, and at night enjoy the serenity and stars. The ultimate escape from city life, the site offers glamping with comfort and are the perfect retreat to reconnect your soul. For those seeking a true escape, our glamping site is here to rejuvenate your spirit. Please note this cabin is only for a couple who wants to get away for a few days. There are no electricity (gas geyser for hot water). Running water is from the river. This is "glamping" in style.
