Sabi Sand Safari Lodges

South Africa

Phone: +27 83 301 6774

WELCOME TO SABI SANDS SAFARI LODGESSabi Sands Safari Lodges are amongst the most luxurious and prestigious game lodges in South Africa.Spanning 65,000 hectares. the Sabi Sands Game Reserve is a testament to the vision of local landowners in the 1950's.The Sabi Sands Safari Lodges stand proudly adjacent to the globally acclaimed Kruger National Park forming a vas! wilderness learning with wildlife.Game viewing possibilities within the Sabi Sand Safari Lodges are simply unparalleled, including the much sought-after Big 5.Add a fantastic range of luxury lodges suiting all tastes and an African dream safari holiday is born.There are no fences between Kruger National Park and the Sabi Sands Safari Lodges, so wild life roams freely in a huge natural environment.The Sabi Sand Safari Lodges are particularly well known for their amazing leopard sightings.The most elusive animal of the Big 5 is frequently spotted when going on a game drive in the reserve.As such. Sabi Sands offers the ultimate photographic safari for enthusiasts.Besides the Big 5. other species occur in great numbers. including over 300 bird species,Sabi Sands Safari Lodges possibly makes the best South African Safari destination for wildlife enthusiasts, photographers. and bird watchers alike.The Sabi and Sand Rivers traverse the game reserve and are named after these two rivers,HERE ARE SOME OF OUR LODGES FOR YOU TO SELECT FROM. (Click headings to redirect for more information)Arathusa Safari LodgeUmkumbe Bush LodgeJock Safari

LodgeFitzpatrick’s at JocksAndbeyond Kirkman’s CampAndbeyond Tengile River LodgeDulini Leadwood LodgeDulini River LodgeSilvan SafariElephant Plains Game LodgeChitwa Chitwa Game LodgeChitwa HouseLeopard Hills LodgeRhino Post Safari LodgePlains Camp at Rhino Walking SafarisUlusaba Rock LodgeUlusabi Safari LodgeSimbambili Game LodgeSabi Sabi Bush LodgeSabi Sabi Earth LodgeSabi Sabi Little Bush CampSabi Sabi Selati CampJaci’s Sabie HouseMala Mala Main CampMala Mala RattraysMala Mala Sable CampSavanna Private Game ReserveWHAT TO PACK FOR YOUR SAFARI IN THE SABI SANDS GAME RESERVE.Going on a safari holiday in South Africa is the highlight for many a visitor to our beautiful country.Below is a list of some safari holiday essentials.WHAT TO WEAR ON SAFARI IN SOUTH AFRICA.• Hat & Sunglasses - safari during the summer months can be hot and sticky,• Comfortable Clothing (think layering as early morning safaris can be freezing at first and once the sun is out can get hot). Similarly, the afternoon/evening gamedrives can be pleasant at first and it can get very cold fast after the sun sets.• Neutral shades to blend into your environment.• Sturdy footwear - especially if your safari lodge also offers walking safaris.• Long Trousers - for the cold and the insects.WHAT TO PACK FOR YOUR SAFARI IN SOUTH AFRICA.• Camera to capture the highlights of your South African safari holiday.• Sunblock - summers can be harsh in South Africa.• Binoculars - although the lodge will have a pair or two in your 4~4 safari vehicle.• Prescription Medication - Although medical evacuation is possible. you are hours away from any doctors or hospitals. so make sure to stock up.• Day Bag I Carry Bag for water. camera. jacket. etc.ACCOMMODATION IN THE SARI SANDS SAFARI LODGES:The safari lodge accommodation in the Sabi Sand Game Reserve ranges greatly in character.Tented camps offer a more traditional candles-and canvas ambience.Some safari lodges are more suited to families and groups travelling together while several are ideal honeymoon destinations.The Sabi Sands Safari Lodges ranks top in the country - and often - also among the most exclusive and expensive, but well worth it.The reserve is made up of individual. often family-owned unfenced reserves. each with lodges discreetly tucked away in prime locations and enjoying exclusive traversing for no-crowds game viewing.Many have reciprocal arrangements with neighbouring reserves to allow for greater freedom to track big game. and since the Sabi Sands Reserve is privately run.guests can expect added extras such as off-road driving. night drives and guided nature walks. all of which greatly enhance your game viewing experience.GETTING TO THE SARI SANDS SAFARI LODGES:You can get to the Sabi Sand Safari Lodges in several war; depending on your individual travel needs.By Air:There are many flight possibilities available for travellers who seek a faster way of getting to the Sabi Sand Safari Lodges.From Johannesburg and Cape Town, travellers can make use of scheduled flights to Kruger Mpumalanga International Airport (KMIA) near Nelspruit.From Nelspruil. you can travel onwards to your preferred lodge by making use of a road transfer or by a small. chartered flight.Airlink and Cemair also serve Hoedspruit Eastgate Airport. which is conveniently located for travellers staying in the northern section of the Sabi Sands Reserve.From Hoedspruit. you can make use of a road transfer to your lodge of choice.Skakuza Airport (in Kruger National Park) was recently reopened and is perfect for travellers staying in the southern section of the Sabi Sands Reserve.By Road:From Johannesburg. the driving distance is approximately 450 kilometres.Most of the route between Johannesburg takes you along the N4. making this an easy and comfortable drive.Including some stops for refreshments. the total driving time is about 6.5 hours at most.GATE ACCESS AT SABI SANDS RESERVE:5haw's Gate - 05hOO to 22hOONewington Gate - 05hOO to 22hOOGowrie Gate - 05hOO to 22hOOPlease note that there are gate fees payable to enter the reserve.

Visit Website
Send Message
Email Friend