furniture, a good bookcase and an eclectic mix of collectibles all add to the welcoming ambience. A fully equipped kitchen tucked around the corner and a fireplace for chilly evenings make for any time of year easy living, as does a choice of king or twin beds and a walk in shower. Morning sunshine streams into the covered terrace furnished with a table and chairs - the perfect spot to start the day. Loungers in the private garden invite more relaxation before a dip in the pool set nearby in the olive grove. Surrounded by vineyards and mountains, peace and quiet, and complete privacy. Once stabling for horses, now a spacious and luxurious country-house style cottage accommodating two people in effortless comfort. Fully equipped with everything you need for a much needed short break away or a lovely long holiday, this is luxury self-catering. French doors open into the living room boasting a big squashy sofa and armchairs inviting instant relaxation. Myriad books lie on Old Cape tables, Africana wildlife prints line the walls and a basket of wood next to the fireplace on colder nights complete the picture. Shielded by a nib wall, the bedroom is cosy and inviting with a king-size bed and painted furniture. This leads to the bathroom with both bath and separate shower. The covered veranda sports a built in daybed layered with big plump cushions for any-time snoozing, directors' chairs and a table provide the perfect spot for all day lazing. Completely private, set in its own garden, peace and quiet come in spades up here on the slopes of the Helderberg.
